

Non-Executive Director of the Board
Glasgow
Two appointments

Scottish Ministers are looking to make two appointments to the Board of Caledonian Maritime Assets Limited (CMAL).

Caledonian Maritime Assets Limited

Caledonian Maritime Assets Limited owns the ferries, ports and harbours and infrastructure necessary for vital ferry services serving the West coast of Scotland and the Clyde Estuary. CMAL are wholly owned by the Scottish Government with Scottish Ministers the sole shareholders.

CMAL aim to provide efficient, cost-effective and safe ferries, harbours and port infrastructure for operators, communities and users in and around Scotland by:

- maintaining, improving and enhancing assets such as vessels and the land and property around piers and harbours;
- seeking extra investment to invest in ferries and harbour facilities, making a real difference for people and businesses using these life line services; and
- working with stakeholders within Scotland and the wider maritime community to be acknowledged as the principal provider of the most cost-effective yet innovative ferries and port infrastructure to the benefit of the island communities.

Non-Executive Director of the Board: two vacancies available

On this occasion there are two specific roles for each Non-Executive Director.

- One position requires recent experience of financing or accounting as well as recent experience of audit and the role of an Audit Committee.
- The second requires knowledge or understanding or experience of engineering, marine sector/shipyards, vessel procurement or international shipping.
