Members

Please see below the “Members” of the Institute statutory definition, as from the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers' Bye-Laws, approved by Privy Council 2 November 2007.

4. Members shall comprise every person elected as a Member whose membership has not ceased.

7. To be eligible for election as a Member a person shall comply with the following conditions:

(a) He shall be engaged either as a principal, director, or employee in a Shipbroking Company or in a business having a bona fide connection with Shipbroking at the time of his application for election. Employment afloat in the merchant marine shall be considered as business having a bona fide connection with Shipbroking.

(b) He shall, unless granted a dispensation therefrom under these Bye-Laws, have passed the Examination or have submitted to the satisfaction of the Education and Training Committee a dissertation in lieu thereof, and

(c) In addition he shall produce such evidence or submit to such additional oral or written examination, as the Education & Training Committee shall require to determine or test his practical ability in accordance with the Royal Charter Paragraph 2 (1).

(d) He shall have satisfied the Controlling Council that he is a fit and proper person to become a Member.

Meetings of the Executive/Controlling Council to consider such applications normally take place in: February, March, May, September, October and November each year. Applications received at the appropriate Institute office less than 14 days before a meeting may not be considered by the Council until the following meeting.

I undertake to observe the Bye-Laws of the Institute.
