

7

38 INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED SHIPBROKERS

TradeWinds

9 August 2013

Surging interest in maritime careers worldwide and ever-rising demand for skilled and qualified maritime professionals has been underlined with a record number of students passing this year's Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers (ICS) annual exams. Released this week and published here are the results for successful candidates from the 2,500 students who registered for over 6,000 exams in 95 different exam centres around the globe. ICS chairman Tony Dixon said: "It is heartening to see this pursuit for excellence in a business that affects millions of people worldwide."
