

LONDON SCHOOL OF SHIPPING

INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED
SHIPBROKERS

Fundamentals of Liner Shipping

A comprehensive two-day programme focused on liner trades and the container shipping industry including discussion sessions, workshops, group activities, case studies and multi-media presentations.

LONDON: 16 - 17 September 2019

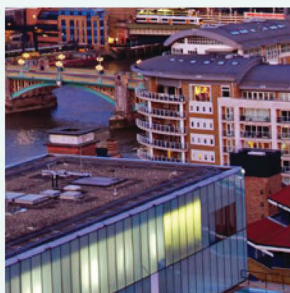

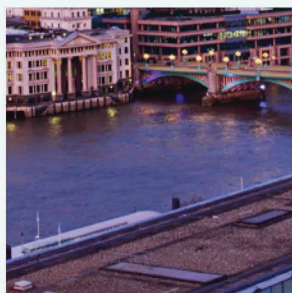

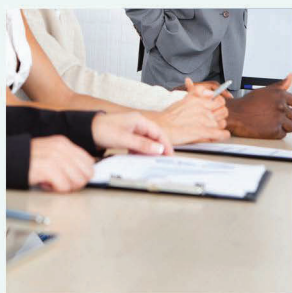

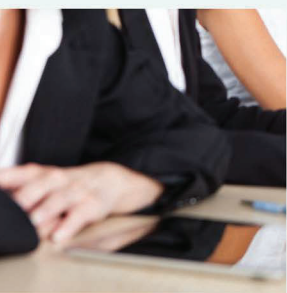

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COURSES

By practitioners
for practitioners

The London School of Shipping offers an extensive range of face-to-face programmes in commercial shipping disciplines, ideal for new starters or those working in the business looking to further their knowledge in specific industry sectors.

The programmes are led by experienced course leaders supported by visiting expert practitioners from the extensive London maritime community.

Courses are held in our modern dedicated facilities close to London Bridge. We look forward to welcoming you soon.

PROGRAMME

Fundamentals of Liner Shipping

Mon 16 – Tue 17 September

Duration: 2 days

30 Park Street, London SE1 9EQ

Course Leader: Tony Mason FICS (Hon)

Tony Mason has worked in the shipping industry for some 40 years with extensive experience in the liner and logistics sectors, as well as representing the industry in its relations with international government bodies, the press, and the public at large.

He spent 32 years in container shipping, culminating in the role of Director, Corporate Strategy, at P&O Nedlloyd, prior to the acquisition of the company by Maersk in 2005.

Since 2010, he has been working as an independent consultant, as well as an Associate with Drewry Shipping Consultants, and as Secretary of the International Support Vessels Owners Association, an international trade association for ship owners operating support vessels in the offshore oil industry.

Tony graduated from University College Oxford with a degree in Chemistry, and holds a Certified Diploma in Accounting and Finance. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport, and an Honorary Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers.

Overview:

A comprehensive two-day programme focused on liner trades and the container shipping industry including discussion sessions, workshops, group activities, case studies and multi-media presentations. The course will cover the liner shipping business and trade routes; ships, terminals and cargo handling; lines, alliances and networks; through transport systems; structure and participants of the sector; service and contractual aspects; commercial aspects – revenue and costs; and contemporary trends that will affect the future development of the sector.

By practitioners for practitioners

- The cost of the course is held at £895.00 per person, including all course materials, lunch and refreshments.
- Discounted rates may apply to companies interested in sending multiple attendees.
- The course can also be organised upon request on an in-house basis.

Visit our website: www.shipping-school.com