

Invitation to all CSOs, PFSOs, CISOs and other Maritime Security Professionals to attend a Maritime Security Workshop in London on Wednesday 16 October 2019

Security Landscape:

- Rising organised crime
- Tensions in the Middle East
- Under reporting of crime (for example West Africa)
- Evolving cyber threat
- Ongoing piracy
- Increasing issues with migration / stowaways

Benefits in Attending:

- Receive latest regional and cyber threat information
- Receive protective security and risk management advice
- Learn about insurance coverage options available to protect against cyber threats
- Collaborate and network with fellow maritime security professionals
- See our new CSO Maritime Alliance, Maritime Cyber Alliance and PFSO Alliance platforms

Workshop Date and Address:

- Wednesday 16 October 2019, Axis Capital (Room 1.06 – 1.09), 52 Lime Street, London, EC3M 7AF

Workshop Agenda:

- 1245: Free lunch and networking opportunity
- 1315: Maritime Security Threats and Risk Management (former Government Intelligence & Protective Security Officer)
- 1345: Cyber Threats (Airbus Cyber Security Division)
- 1415: Insurance Perspective to Cyber Risk & the Cover Available (Axis Capital)
- 1445: Refreshment break
- 1500: Criminal use of Jamming Technology (UK Police)
- 1530: The need for Collaboration (CSO Alliance Ltd)
- 1600: Workshop ends

Please register to attend this free workshop by clicking here.

For further information contact info@csoalliance.com. For more information on our companies, click here: