

MARITIME LEADERSHIP

L O N D O N 2 0 1 9

Maritime Leadership and the Near Horizon

IMO London, 15 - 16 October 2019
Programme

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Nusrat Ghani MP, Maritime Minister, UK

Vicky Pryce, Chief Economic Advisor, CEBR

Renata Frolova-Hammer, Board Member, IKEA

PB Subbiah, Director, Pacific Basin Shipping

TUESDAY 15TH OCTOBER

Venue: IMO International Maritime Organization
4 Albert Embankment, Lambeth, London SE1 7SR

9:00am Registration and coffee

9:30am Welcome and opening remarks

Introducing the distinctive themes of this inaugural international conference - the forces and trends influencing maritime trade, leadership and their impacts on human capital planning and development.

- Julie Lithgow, Director, Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers

9:50am Keynote speech

- Nusrat Ghani MP, Maritime Minister, UK

10:30am Coffee break

11:00am Presentation: Leadership development: trends, impact and the future

Attributes of a typical CEO and how these have changed over time. What is being taught in business schools and what the data reveals about the impact of MBAs on company performance. Developing the leaders of the future.

- Dr Thomas Hoyland, Associate Dean, University of Hull

11:30am Panel discussion: 'State of the Union'

The panel of experts including economists, shipping leaders and financiers will cast an eye on the trajectory for shipping markets in the near to medium term, identifying key drivers and surveying the landscape for threats, opportunities and how leaders in shipping and international trade can meet the challenges ahead.

- Vicky Pryce, Chief Economic Advisor, CEBR

- Katerina Stathopoulou, Executive Director, Investments and Finance Ltd

- Paul Jennings, Chief Executive, North of England P&I Association

- Karin Orsel, Chief Executive, MF Shipping Group

12:30pm Lunch

1:30pm

Panel discussion: Leadership in a complex world

A moderated discussion with experts from the shipping world, business schools and researchers will investigate evolving shipping business models and the meaning of leadership and management in this context. What lessons can be learned from the experience of other sectors? Are the traditional structures for human capital sustainable? What are the enduring key skills and behaviours and what should be focused on for the future?

- Renata Frolova-Hammer, Board Member, IKEA and Founder, Sustainable Business Models Design
- Wilson Wong, Head of Insight and Futures, CIPD
- PB Subbiah, Director, Pacific Basin Shipping
- Dr Thomas Hoyland, Associate Dean, University of Hull

3:00pm

Coffee break

3:30pm

Presentation and panel discussion: Capacity building for a national maritime economy

What is required to ensure the sustainability of a competitive skilled workforce? Case studies: Example programmes, lessons and key success criteria from around the world.

- Malek Pourzanjani, Senior Expert, NTU International
- Jagmeet Makkar, Director, SkillsPlus, Hong Kong
- Nancy Karigithu, CEO, Kenya Maritime Authority (tbc)
- Dumisani Ntuli, DDG Maritime Transport, South Africa (tbc)

5:00pm

Q&A and closing remarks

House of Lords, Houses of Parliament

7:00pm

Parliamentary reception and dinner for delegates and invited guests

-

10:00pm

WEDNESDAY 16TH OCTOBER

9:00am Registration and coffee

9:30am Opening remarks

- Phil Parry, Board member, Maritime London and Chairman, Spinnaker Global

9:40am Presentations and panel discussion: Leadership in International Trade

Trade wars, geopolitical factors and trends.

What does the data show and where are we heading? How are the key multilateral institutions facilitating trade growth? What impact do trade agreements have?

Competition and cooperation: how the industry comes together to tackle key challenges.

A panel of experts drawn from international institutions and industry provide perspectives on global trade and observations from the coal face, and discuss how the shipping industry is planning for the challenges ahead.

- Hassiba Benamara, Economic Affairs, UNCTAD

- Ruosi Zhang, Counsellor, WTO

11:00am Coffee break

11:30am Presentation and panel discussion: Technology and Innovation

Shipping and the broader context of social and industrial change. Digital age and the emergence of hyper-productive businesses. Customers and consumers - changing expectations and preferences.

Evolution and transformation: how companies in the shipping business are adapting to the new world realities.

Highlights of tech in shipping - successes and challenges.

Implications for people and skills.

- Nick Roscoe, COO, Concirrus

- Claes Westman, Lead Risk Advisor, A.P. Moller-Maersk

- Mauro Sacchi, Director, Business Development, Wärtsilä

- Ade McCormack, Founder, Digital Readiness Institute

1:00pm Lunch

2:00pm Presentation: The future of work

- Dr. Jens-Uwe Schröder-Hinrichs, Vice-President (Academic Affairs), World Maritime University

3:00pm Round-up and closing remarks

INSTITUTE OF
CHARTERED
SHIPBROKERS

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Maritime Leadership and the Near Horizon is a conference coordinated by the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers and Maritime London. A high-level forum to explore industry capacity and share best practice, attended by leaders from industry, government and academia around the world.

Featuring a programme of leading speakers challenging our current thinking and sharing strategies on how the global community can develop maritime leadership and future skills in a rapidly changing and increasingly complex world.

TO REGISTER

www.ics.org.uk/maritime-leadership

Attendance includes parliamentary reception and dinner on 15 October.

For further information please contact us:

Tel: +44 (0)20 7357 9722

Email: enquiries@ics.org.uk

