

BREAKBULK AMERICAS

Photo: AAL Shipping (AAL)

SEPTEMBER 27-29, 2022
GEORGE R. BROWN CONVENTION CENTER | HOUSTON

a Hyve event

CHARTERING WORKSHOP

Tuesday, September 27, 2022 from 9:00 am - 4:30 pm at the George R. Brown Convention Center
Workshop includes two networking coffee breaks and lunch
Price: $700 / $350 for Breakbulk Global Shipper Network members

Description

This one-day, intermediate level workshop provides a deeper understanding of chartering principles and applications for full-time chartering professionals as well as those who work with chartering contracts.

What this course covers

Lecturer Philip Bacon will provide instruction designed to increase proficiency in key areas, including:

- » Major cargoes and trade routes
- » Chartering terminology
- » Shipping and market sector definitions
- » Identifying key stakeholders in

- a chartering contract
- » The profit and loss levers and rationale of breakbulk cargoes
- » Shipbroker authority - advantages and limitations
- » Calculating demurrage and despatch across sectors
- » Bills of Lading: functions and correct usage; pitfalls and risks associated with incorrect usage

Who should attend this workshop?

- Cargo owners
- Freight forwarders
- Shipbrokers
- Carriers
- Insurers
- Agents
- Ports, terminals and stevedoring companies
- terminals

Meet the instructor

Captain Philip H. Bacon is Vice-President of Operations at Siem Shipping Ltd, a multi-fleet shipowning group. Since 2014 he has consulted and provided expert witness testimony through his company Icthus Marine. Following 7 years' naval and merchant navy education, Philip sailed on merchant ships including chemical and gas tankers, general cargo and PSVs. In the shore-based part of his career, he has worked for shipowners from Shell and K-Line to Gearbulk and AM Nomikos.

Capt. Philip Bacon,
Vice-President of Operations
Siem Shipping Ltd

REGISTER NOW AT AMERICAS.BREAKBULK.COM